Remembrancer

The applicant is the elder son of the late Mr. Gabbar Khan Saheb who was doing business as a vegetable seller and who died on August 19 20[redacted]. He has a younger brother Babar Khan by name who is a minor and who is under the protection of his elder brother. It would appear that the pension descends from the father to the son and it is enjoyed in their joint name. If that is the position maybe make payable to the two sons jointly the elder brother being treated the guardian of the minor.

Statement of Ahmed Nazeer Khan residing at No 5
Sultanjee Junta Row before the Senior Inspector on 16/2/

I am the elder son of the late Mr. Sattar Khan.
I have another Brother Ahmed Nazeer Khan who is a minor under my protection. My brother is also under my protection
I am doing my late father's business namely supplying vegetables to other countries such as Rangoon, Madras
Calcutta, Bombay, Jubbulpore, Travancore, Trichinopoly Rajahmundry & other places. After my father's death both myself and my brother are entitled to the pension

J. Nazeer Ahmed Khan

N. Dis no 118/Gl/22 J N583 21st Feb: 1922

Returned to the Amildar Bangalore Taluk with the ~~Amin~~ Inspectors report and the Statement of the petitioner recorded by him. The late M. Gabbar Khan has left a widow and two sons, viz. the petitioner and another minor boy named Basheer Ahmed Khan who is under the protection of the former. As the pension in question appears to be hereditary in lieu of a gaighar, it may (perhaps) be made payable to both the sons jointly, the elder brother being treated as guardian of the minor.
